Tennessee Board of Accountancy Elects New Chairman

Nashville, TN - The Tennessee Board of Accountancy has elected Vic Alexander as its new chairman for 2008-2009. Alexander, Chief Manager of KraftCPAs, was elected at the April board meeting.

Alexander began his career with KraftCPAs in 1982 and became Chief Manager of the firm in 1993. He provides many consulting services for the firm's entrepreneurial clients and assists in evaluating financing alternatives and proposed purchases or sales of business interests. Alexander has experience with numerous clients in real estate and construction, printing, advertising, music industry, legal profession and venture capital.

Alexander is accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). He is a member of the American Institute and the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA). A 1982 graduate of David Lipscomb College, Alexander is on the board of advisors for David Lipscomb University Business School. Mr. Alexander also serves on the board of directors of numerous nonprofit organizations.

The mission of the Tennessee State Board of Accountancy is to protect the public interest by ensuring that persons professing special competence in accountancy or those offering assurance regarding financial statement presentation have demonstrated their qualifications to do so. The Board's vision is to protect the public, enhance communications with licensees and proactively respond to the demands of today's changing world.
